

We believe the Word of God is relevant for all generations and foundational for fruitful living, yielding people hungry for the Word and thirsty for the Spirit.

We believe spiritually mature followers are individually and corporately dependent upon God, gifted by the Spirit to share the Gospel – while living a life of service, prayer, and worship.

We believe that intergenerational discipleship produces the healthiest and most enduring church that lovingly serves one another through varied groups and ministries.

We believe in a corporate elder leadership team, that along with professional staff oversee the spiritual well-being of the congregation, identifying and equipping servant leaders.

We believe in reaching our community and world with God's unchanging truth, while being innovative and culturally relevant.

We believe in a compassion-oriented ministry of grace and hope toward forgiven sinners, while living together in covenant relationships as a church family.
